'Target Week' brings an action-packed twist on COLORS 'KKK13' this weekend

Mumbai, The dose of adrenaline gets bigger with each passing episode on COLORS' 'Khatron Ke Khiladi 13'. The excitement is set to skyrocket with 'Target Week' which will keep the audience at the edge of their seat. This weekend's episode will kick off with the action master and host Rohit Shetty creating two rival groups of five contestants, and each group must pick one contestant from the opposite group as the chosen target for elimination. With two contestants nominated for the elimination round right at the beginning of the episode, what does this week have in store for the audiences? Only time will tell.

The third stunt of the week begs the answer to the question 'Who let the dogs out?'. For this stunt, contestants must pick bones planted across different set-ups on a beach while a feral dog is chasing them. The fear of whether the untamed dogs get the bone or worse the skin of the contestant is the hook of this menacing stunt. The next stunt requires contestants to lay on ice cubes in an enclosure with an electric shock-ridden box that they're supposed to unlock with a key. While the onslaught of phobias continues, a few light moments transpire as Aishwarya Sharma mimics Archana Gautam's hilarious singing voice, Nyrraa performs a dance and Soundous braves her fear of rats by holding one hesitantly. What follows is 'Rohit Ke Mann Ki Baat', a segment that will have the contestants in splits. The host shall shed light on the quirky tendencies of the contestants. Caught between the devil and the deep sea, contestants will literally and metaphorically be in the same moving boat as they are tasked with plucking out flags planted on a net.

Geetanjali to celebrate Raksha Bandhan with her cousin

Mumbai, Aug 29 (IANS) Actress Geetanjali Mishra, who recently joined the television show 'Happu Ki Ultan Paltan' as Rajesh, the wife of the titular character, is all geared up for the festival of Raksha Bandhan which happens to be on Wednesday.

Geetanjali shared that she is eagerly waiting to celebrate the festival with her cousin-in-law Rajkumar.

The actress said that every Raksha Bandhan her dear cousin Rajkumar comes to her home, and she ties a special thread on his wrist.

Talking about the same, Geetanjali said, "He's like a big brother, someone I can always turn to for advice and share my feelings with. His presence in my life fills me with gratitude. This year, I'm eagerly waiting for him to visit again. I'm so excited to greet him with a bowl of his favourite sweet dish, 'Sooji ki kheer'."

Making this kheer from scratch has become a tradition, and in return, he spoils me with lots of chocolates, knowing how much I love them."

She further mentioned, "We both love sweets, making our tradition even more delightful. And that's not all - as a sign of his love, he surprises me with beautiful sarees or kurtas. I can't wait to see what he's chosen for me this time. His thoughtful gestures always touch my heart. I pray that our bond continues to be filled with happiness, understanding, and endless love."

'Happu Ki Ultan Paltan' is a show about Happu Singh, a police officer in the city of Kanpur. The story revolves around the misadventures of Happu Singh and his large family - his wife; Rajesh Singh, mother Katori and his nine children.

Sushmita on 'Rakshabandhan': It's a celebration where you embrace 'imperfect' bond

New Delhi, Aug 29 (IANS) Actress Sushmita Sen shared her thoughts about her on-screen brother-sister bond with Ankur Bhatia, portrayed in 'Aarya', saying Rakshabandhan is a celebration where you embrace 'imperfect' bond, promise to be each other's strength in tough times.

From having each other's backs to fighting over the silliest things, brother-sister bond experiences all emotions possible. One such complex aspect of the relationship we witnessed in the fan-favorite series 'Aarya'. While Aarya (Sushmita) and Sangram (Ankur) do not share the perfect brother-sister relationship, the love and care for one another remain unwavered.

Opening up about the same, Sushmita said: "Sibling relationships are very difficult to put into words.

They fight, they make-up, they fight again, it's a vicious cycle that we all enjoy going through. The bond between Aarya and Sangram is not the ideal one but what I love about their relationship is that they have accepted their bitter relationship and not let go of the love they have for each other; that's exactly what Rakshabandhan stands for."

"A celebration where you embrace this imperfect bond and promise to be each other's strength in tough times," added the actrix. "Aarya" is a crime-thriller drama co-created by Ram Madhvani and Sandeep Modi, who also directed the series, with Vinod Rawat, serving as the co-director.

On the work front, Sushmita was recently seen in 'Taali', which throws light on the trials and tribulations of Shreegauri Sawant's (played by Sushmita) life - her daring transformation from Ganesh to Gauri, and the discrimination she was subjected to because of that, her fearless journey towards motherhood, and the audacious battle that led to the inclusion and identification of the third gender on every official document in India.

Created by Arjun Singh Baran and Kartik D Nishan-dar, and directed by Ravi Jadhav, 'Taali' is a story of courage and change. It is streaming on JioCinema.

Mumbai, Aug 29 (IANS) After featuring in 'Pathaan' and 'Gadar 2', actor Rumi Khan will be seen sharing screen space with Nawazuddin Siddiqui in the upcoming Bollywood film, 'Section 108'.

Rumi said: "After working with Shah Rukh Khan in 'Pathaan' and previously with Sunny Deol in 'Gadar 2', I'm happy to get the opportunity to work with Nawazuddin Siddiqui. "He is one of my favourite and I'm sure shooting with him will be amazing. I will get to learn a lot and the time spent will be like doing an acting workshop. I'm happy that slowly I'm making my way in Bollywood. It's my third movie in a row," Rumi said.

Rumi, best known for featuring in TV shows like 'Alibaba: Dastaan-e-Kabul', 'Mahabharat' (2013) among others, continued to share about his role.

Abhishek Banerjee opens up on his physical transformation for 'Aakhri Sach'

New Delhi, Aug 29 (IANS) Actor Abhishek Banerjee has not only trained himself mentally to play an emotionally challenging role of Bhuvan in investigative thriller web series 'Aakhri Sach', but also put on weight to justify the character arc.

Actors sometimes dive into a bit of a "character cosplay" by making a bold physical changes. Whether it's hitting the gym or transforming themselves entirely to match the character's unique posture - these transformations are like stepping into a real-life costume.

Talking about his physical transformation, Abhishek shared: "Physically I ate a lot because I wanted to put on some weight for my character. I wanted some kind of age for Bhuvan so I gained around 5 to 6 kgs. Our director Robbie Grewal was very clear that he does not want to grey my hair. But there is definitely an age transition which I tried to convey with my weight."

"Psychologically, when your body and mind goes through some trauma your responses and directions become slow and that is what I tried to do with Bhuvan. Bhuvan is someone who will talk slowly, walk slowly, he does not get excited quickly, he thinks more than others, he is also an extreme over thinker and I tried to portray that," shared Abhishek.

One night, one family, multiple deaths, an investigating officer and various theories, 'Aakhri Sach' is inspired by true events. Set against the backdrop of simmering tension, the series delves into the lives of each character as Tamannaah Bhatia, playing the role of Anya, the lead investigative officer embarks on a mission to unravel the mystery of the deaths. The show takes you on an emotional journey with a talented ensemble of Tamannaah, Abhishek Banerjee, Shivin Narang, Danish Iqbal, Nishu Dikshit, Kriti Vij and Sanjeev Chopra. It is produced by Nirvikar Films, directed by Robbie Grewal, and written by Saurav Dey.
